

GURDJIEFF WORK IN MOVEMENT

RESIDENTIAL SEMINAR

geleitet von

Margit Martinu und Anthony Blake

Piano: Coen Van Hoboken

-Lernen lernen-

Wie können wir unsere innere Arbeit zum Leben erwecken?

6. - 11. August 2017

Beginn: 16.00 Uhr, Ende: 16.00 Uhr

Infos: corinaenglert2@gmail.com
www.gurdjieffmovements.it fb: Gurdjieff Work in Movement

Seminarhaus Eulenspiegel
Bergstraße 43 - Flözlingen
78658 Zimmern ob Rottweil

MARGIT MARTINU

studied at the International Academy for Continuous Education in Sherborne, England, directed by J.G. Bennett and in the United States at the Institute of Paul Anderson, pupil of Gurdjieff, where she was appointed as Movements instructor. She has also studied and taught at the Gurdjieff Foundation in Europe. Conducts Movements seminars in Europe and in the United States. Margit has directed various public demonstrations.

ANTHONY BLAKE

has a background in physics and philosophy. He studied with the physicist David Bohm and other innovators. He has worked and taught at the International Academy for Continuous Education in Sherborne, England, directed by J. G. Bennett. He is author of several books including «The Intelligent Enneagram» and «The Supreme Art of Dialogue». He is the co-founder and director of studies of the «DuVersity» (www.duversity.org).

COEN VAN HOBOKEN

from the Netherlands has studied Gurdjieff movements in groups from various lineages. He accompanies movements classes in Europe and interprets the music of Gurdjieff and De Hartmann both on the piano and on the accordion.